ONE WAY
OUR WAY!

We have made our journey through five wondeful years at Pocahontas High School, and are very excited about the next upcoming year. It is hard to believe that in one short year we will be moving on. We are very excited about the future and what it holds for all of us. As we get ready for the last year of our high school we find ourselves, excited and scared. What does the future hold for us? That is the question on our minds!

Lisa,

Congratulations! We are so very proud of the wonderful lady you have become. You are beautiful inside and out. We prayed eight long years before God blessed us with our second precious baby girl. You were worth the wait. You have been a blessing everyday since. You have a lot of good qualities, but the two I think of first are your honesty, and the way you help others. We hope and pray your future will be full of happiness, good health, success and above all, LOVE. Please remember we are only a telehone call away if you need us. You will always be our "Precious Darling."

We love you, Mom and Dad

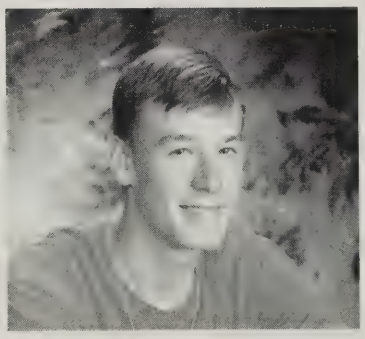
"Lisa Marie Angus Putrula" A.K.A. Lisa Murphy,

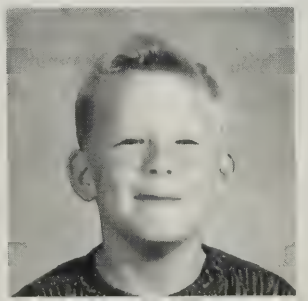
Most people take being a "Big Sister" for granted, but I find it a wonderful honor to have placed upon a person. When I prayed to God to send me a baby seventeen years ago, I never knew what a precious little angel he would have come into my life. You are not only my little sissy, but my best friend. I love you and am very Proud of who you are and what you have become. You are a terrific sister, a wonderful aunt and one of the best prayers God answered. God Bless You Always!

We love you, Sissy Scott Cheyanne and Dakota

P.S. Stay away from lights that talk. Ha! Ha!

To My Special Graduate
On the day you graduate,
You have so much celebrate.
For the years you thought was so hard,
Look at you, you've come so far.
Now you've come to the next phase of your life,
I hope you find it free from trouble and srife.
I hope you live every moment as if it were your last.
Because believe me, life goes really fast.
I hope you find plenty of happiness.
A life full with plebty of love and tenderness.
It is my wish from me to you,
that you succeed in all that you strive to do.
There will be times with pain or tears.
Just remember, I'm always here
I will always be there for you,
And will support you in whatever you feel you need to do. (Within reason)
I want you to be respectable, kind, & loving young man.
Be happy, be someone you can love, & deeply understand.
Be careful of life'decisions that you will need to ultimately make.
Remember consequences may result in the actions you take.
We are all only human, and make mistakes.
Just learn your lesson, with the punishment you take.
Always hold your head high, and be proud.
For you are truly loved by people all around.
As your senior year is now at a close,
I wanted to write you this special prose.
To let you know how proud I am of you.
How so very much, I adore and love you!!
.....Mom





Our Son
On August the 1st, 1983
your father and I both surely agree, was one of the best days of our life,
As we lived together as husband and wife.
Was the birth of our only son,
Was one of the best things we had ever done.
When you came into this world we heard your screams,
We both knew at that moment we had fulfilled our dream.
The light of our life was as bright as the afternoon sun,
Because to us was born this small, beautiful son.
As long as we live we'll never forget that day.
In the vocabulary there is not words adequate enough to say,
To explain the endearing love and emotions we felt on that day.
You have brought us so many moments of joy,
As you have ran, laughed, and played with your toys.
We always knew you were special in so many different ways,
We still think so, (we may not tell you) even today.
You are the very focus of our life,
which we enjoy together as husband and wife.
For your young age you have had to cope with so much,
We hope you will always be so tough.
We want you to have the american dream,
Filled with all the peaches and cream.
As you finish your High school education as a teen,
We hope you will strive to fulfill all of your dreams.
We love you dearly from the bottom of our hearts
And hope in your life you'll let us be a big part.
All we want is your happiness,
In all that you do, a lot of success.
When you experience uncertainty, or gloom,
Just know we will always be there for you! love you dearly,
And that's one thing we hope you see clearly.
We love you more today than we did yesterday.
There is not much more we can really say,
Just that we hope on this your graduation day,
Is that you feel as special as we think you are, on this special day. We love you more than we could ever express in words to you!! Mom & Dad

Johnathon,

We're very proud of you. You're growing into a fine young man. You have your whole life ahead of you, to be whatever you want to be. We will always be here for you. Always remember that no matter what this life brings you, you can always find peace in God. You've made us all very proud.

Love, Mom and Dad

Tyler,

"Wisdom is the principle thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding." — Proverbs 4:7
We're proud of you Tyler, for staying focused on your goals and we hope you continue to do so and prosper well in life.

Love, Mom, Dad and Philip

Adam,

It's hard to believe that the little fellow, who was sliding down a long set of steps, belly first, is getting ready to graduate. You have brought so much joy into our lives. Your sense of humor and inquisitiveness have touched our lives and brought smiles to our faces.
You have earned our "Congratulations!" We are very proud of you. It thrills our hearts to see the person you have become. We realize your love for God and others will continue to bring you genuine happiness. May God bless and protect you always.

We love you, Mom, Dad and Jill

Natasha,

We remember when you first started school, you were so small. You grew up on us so fast. It is so hard to believe that you are graduating. We are so proud of you. We hope that life treats you good and you have all the happiness in the world. We love you very much and we're so proud to have you as our daughter and as a sister.

Love you Always, Dad, Mom and Tina

Juanita,
When you were just a child
you were usually here by my side, filled with wonder and curiosity,
trying things for the first time
and wanting to grow up....
Nowadays, you're mostly on your own-planning, doing, dreaming, and reaching for the stars-and that's as it should be.....
But I want you to know that no matter how far from home your dreams may lead you -
in every way that matters, you're still here by my side right here in my heart where I'll always treasure you as my little girl and the beautiful daughter
I love with all my heart.
Always remember how much your Pop-paw loved you.
He's in heaven now looking down on you, his "Precious Angel."
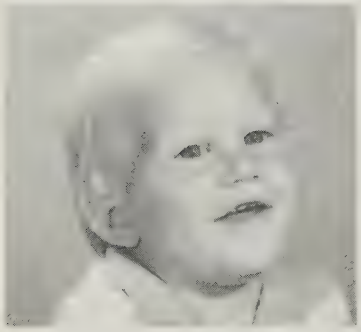
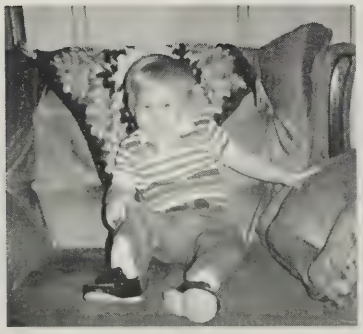
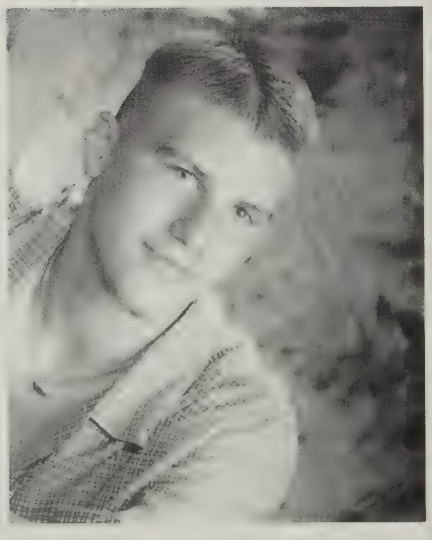
I wish you everything that you have given to me!
Love you, Mom & Dad "Stretch"





Chris
It seems like only yesterday you were our beautiful baby boy. Now you have grown into a fine young man and brother. You have filled our lives with so many wonderful memories. Keep up your great personality and outlook on life and you will suceed in whatever goals you choose. Remember, we will always be there for you. May God bless you and always keep you safe.

We Love You, Mom, Dad, and Kayla



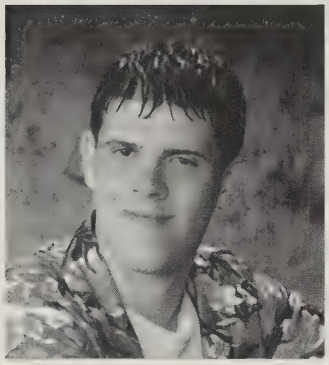
Congratulations Joey,
You did it. We are proud of you. No matter where you go or what you do, we are there for you. Hope you go where it is you want to go to succeed in your life.
Love ya, Mom and Dad

Michael,
Congratulations in accomplishing a big step in your life. My, how fast the years have passed since that first day of pre-school at the church. Your dad and I were so proud of you- you just marched on in like it was the duty of any four year-old. You've accomplished many things since then, and now those accomplishments will carry you into your future. Always remember to seek the how and why answers, and always ask God for guidance in finding those answers. Your life without a doubt , will be a fulfilling one. Your sense of self, the unique person that you are will take you far. Follow your heart and be happy. You've matured into a fine young man; a man I'm very proud of and honored to call my son.
With all my Love and Best Wishes, Mom

Rosanna,
You've made it! Watching you grow and change into a warm, caring, and talented young lady has been the greatest joy of our lives. We love you very proud of you!
Love, Mom and Dad

Tina,
Congratulations! We are proud of you! Good lick in whatever you choose to do. We wish ou lots of happiness and success in your future. No matter what happens in life we love you.
With Love,
Mom, Dad, Tracy and Chicken Nuggets

Chad,
Just to think that we asked for a healthy baby boy and we recieved from God- so much more. You have been such a pleasure to watch and care for. We were amazed that even as a young child your needs were so easily met. You always wanted a new ball and that was all you cared about when we shopped. Then you crawled, walked and ran. In everything you gave it your all. Don't ever forget you're loved, you're blessed and you're a blessing to us. Seek that perfect plan for your life.
Love Mom & Dad



Justin,
What a journey it has been,
Through all the wins,
You are the star of our hearts.
And you are very smart.
You have come a long way
to reach this glorious day.
We wish you the very best,
as you prepare to leave the nest.
The future is now yours.
Congratulations, we love you Superstar!
Mom, Dad, Carolyn, Christa, Chrystal, Jamie, Teresa, Nichole, and Tyler

Hey Andrew,
Life will throw you many curves, but stay focused on Him; He will direct your ways if you do. It is our delight to have you as our son. We have enjoyed watching you grow up to be a handsome, young man that we are proud of. Your desire to do a good job for me will carry you far in the work place. May God you the desires of heart. (Phil. 4:13)
We love you,
Dad, Mom, and Blessings

Crystal,
This is a happy time and a sad time. My baby is gone but a wonderful young woman is in her place. Great things are yet to come.
Love,
Your family

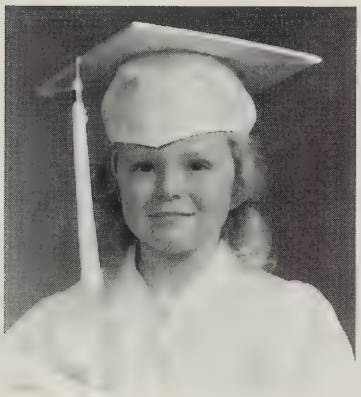
Dawn,
It seems like yesterday that me an dyour daddy was either changing your diaper, cleaning up your drull, or trying to find your "fi fi". And look at you now. You have grown into a graduating from high school. You have achieved so much growing up, but you still have a long road ahead of you. We know that you will set your goals high, and accomplish them as best life will let you. Me and your daddy will be there backing you up 100%. I know that you and your sisters don't see eye to eye on somethings, but they love you and are very proud of you, as well as me and your daddy are. We wish you the very best in everything tht you decide to do, and every accomplishment that you make now and in your future.

Congratulations and we love you,
Momma, Daddy Amber, Kayla, and Danielle

Ashley,
God sent an angel our way, it was you we have always been proud of you. Reach high in all your dreams and ambitions and if in flight your wing gets broken I'll be there.
Love you,
Dad, Mom, Josh, & Alan

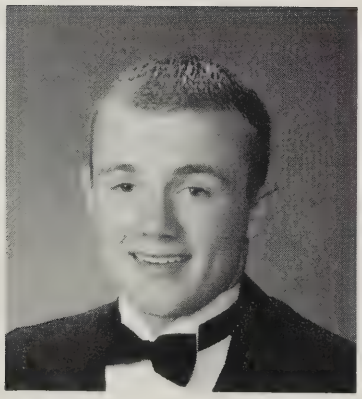
Sabrina,
As we think about what we want to say, we remember a tiny baby fighting for her life. We believe that's what made you such a fighter today. You are such a strong person who is not afraid to stand up for what she believes in. That's why we know that what ever goals you set for yourself you will achieve and excell in them. We are so very proud of you.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Adam

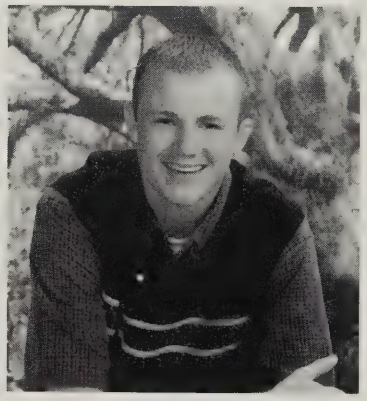
Punkin,
When you took that first baby step leading to that last step off the stage, you were walking a path that I helped make. No w that path leads you to a road that only you can decide which way to go. Remember that I am very proud of you and that your father is looking down on you. You can succeed out in the world if you really set your heart to it. And also remember that you will always be my baby girl.
Love,
Mom & Robbie

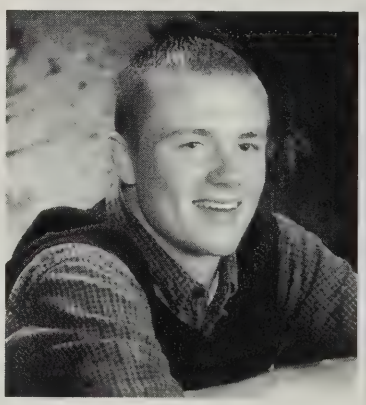


Jessica,
It seems like yesterday that I was taking you to Kindercare, you started pulling on my leg saying, "Don't leave me mommie." How the years have quickly gone by and you've grown into a bright, beautiful, young lady and will be on your own very soon. I hope all your hopes and dreams come true and life takes you down the road to success. Remember that I love you and you will always be my "Little Pookie"! We are very proud of you. God bless you.

We Love you so much,
Mom & Dad







LJ,
They always say better late than never! We are very glad that you joined our class this year. We wish you lots of luck in your future!
Love,
The Class of 2001

DJ, you are one of a kind. Determination has been your best strength through it all. I have no doubt you will accomplish everything you desire in life. I am truly proud of you.
Congratulations
I love you,
Mom

DATER'S BILL OF RIGHTS

I have the right to refuse a date without feeling guilty.

I can ask for a date without feeling rejected or inadequate if the answer is no.

I do not have to act macho.

I may choose not to act seductively.

If I don't want physical closeness, I have the right to say no.

I have the right to start a relationship slowly, to say, "I want to know you better before I become involved".

I have the right to be myself without changing to suit others.

I have the right to change a relationship when my feelings change. I can say, "We use to be close, but I want something else now".

If I am told a relationship is changing, I have the right not to blame or change myself to keep going.

I have the right not to dominate or to be dominated.

I have the right to act one way with one person and a different way with someone else.

I have the right to change my goals whenever I want to.

I have the right to tell someone I do not like the way I have been treated and that I choose to end the date or relationship.

I have the right not to be responsible for my partner's behavior.

I have the right to express my opinions and have them respected.

YOU ARE HERE
This is the "Age of Connectivity" and you're in it.
You are everywhere, thanks to the Internet.
E-mail a friend in Bangalor, shop for cool shoes at some European e-tailer, or even watch a web-cast concert from overseas, and all from your desktop.
The world's getting smaller.
Might even feel crowded at times.
Chill. Look for signs along the road to help you find your way in this brave new world...
and enjoy the ride.

What a golden year for sports.
Michael Johnson won two gold medals in the 400 meter and 4 x 400 meter relay in the Sydney Olympics.
(Must have been the shoes.)
Multiple medals also went to Maurice Green and to Marion Jones, who took home three gold and two bronze.
She's the first woman to win five medals in one Olympics.
Tiger Woods did it again. And again. And again.
As the PGA Tour Player of the year, he placed first in tournament after tournament, including the U.S. Open, the British Open and the PGA Championship.
The golden girls of soccer settled for silver in Sydney.
Under a Shaq attack.
Shaquille O'Neal, with Kobe Bryant, shot the Lakers to victory against the Indiana Pacers in the NBA finals.
ONE
GAME SET MATCH
Lance rules. Armstrong conquered the Alps and silenced cynics, winning his second consecutive Tour de France. His comeback from cancer makes him a double role model, to athletes and cancer patients alike.
The "Subway Series" made baseball big news. For the first time in 44 years the New York Yankees and the New York Mets went head to head at the World Series. New York came out on top. (As in Yankees.)
The Williams sisters continued to take the tennis world by storm. Rivals on opposite sides of the net, they're unstoppable as partners. Venus topped a stellar year with wins at Wimbledon and the U.S. Open. She took the gold at the Sydney Olympics in singles, and paired with Serena to take the gold in doubles as well.
It wasn't in the stars. The New Jersey Devils took the Stanley Cup back from the Dallas Stars after their nail-biting double overtime victory in game six.
D-FENSE!
The Baltimore Ravens extraordinary defense gave them the edge and a 34-7 win over the New York Giants in Super Bowl XXXV.

What goes around comes around.

Look behind the technology hype and you're sure to find recycled trends.

Oh, the irony.

It's the 70s all over again.

Large tinted lenses make for look-at-me sunglasses and disco-era hairstyles return with "wings" and feathered bangs reminiscent of Farrah Fawcett's famous locks.

A new twist is the bright burst of hair color, maybe a leftover from the punk and glam rock resurgence last year.

A rhinestone belt holds up your denims? Glittery studs on your faded jeans?

Totally.

England's Prince William took a "gap year" before college, following his mother's example of service and humanitarianism.

His volunteer and environmental work in Chile shows that the man who will be king is a true prince of hearts.

For the guys, the mop top is back with the "shag" hairstyle.

The bed-head hairstyles of Ricky Martin and Kevin of the Backstreet Boys is typical of the macho look many stars like.

Leather whatever.

Leather is everywhere. Leather pants. Leather boots.

Everything else sparkles and shines.

We heard lots of wedding bells.

Two Backstreet Boys got hitched, Madonna married her Guy.

Catherine Zeta-Jones, wed Michael Douglas, and Jennifer and Brad tied the knot.

Caution. Heavy traffic ahead.

As in new millennium traffic. It seems like the more info there is, the harder it is to be informed. Technology promises a bright new age but it's still hard to communicate.

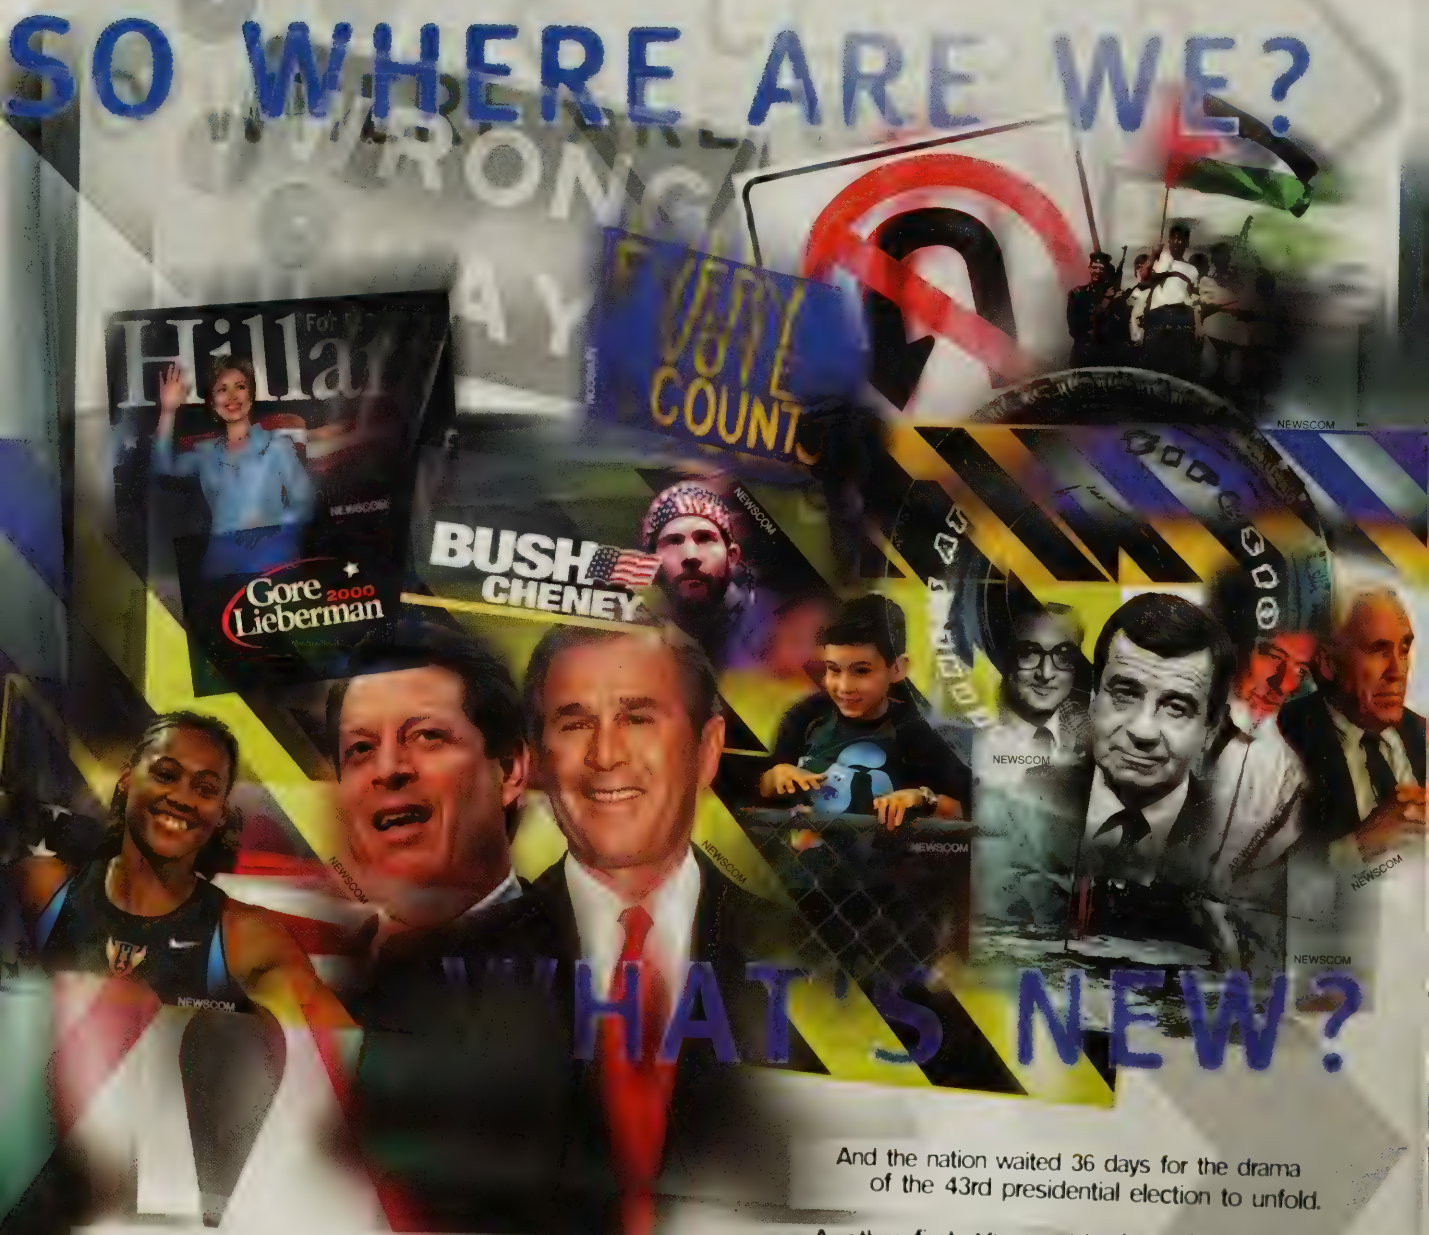
Some things never change.

The Pope journeyed to the Holy Land and prayed for peace, while conflicts between Israelis and Palestinians raged.

Allegedly linked to the unrest, the USS Cole was bombed off the coast of Yemen.

This year we remember with honors entertainer Steve Allen, actors Walter Matthau, Jason Robards, and Alec Guiness.

SO WHERE ARE WE?



WHAT'S NEW?

And the nation waited 36 days for the drama of the 43rd presidential election to unfold.

Another first. After court battles and recounts, Florida's 25 electoral votes were finally awarded to Texas governor George W. Bush in the closest presidential race in history. In another dramatic sequence of events, tensions between U.S. and Cuba rose over the custody battle of 6-year-old Elian Gonzalez who was finally reunited with his father and sent back to Cuba amid anti-Castro protests.

Crash. Technology and music went head to head, as 19-year-old Napster co-founder Shawn Fanning battled the music industry over copyright usage of downloaded music.

Firestone tires exploded on highways across the nation forcing one of the largest recalls in history.

Hillary Clinton stepped out of the White House and into the U.S. Senate, a first.

Television gives a crash course in life lessons.
The nation tuned in to see who would be voted out in this summer's biggest smash "Survivor".
The ultimate survivor, Richard Hatch, beat all odds in order to outlast his island mates.

ANYTHING 'ON'?
T.V.
101
In shows like "Roswell" and "Angel," to survive means getting rid of the bad guys.
They showed that we all experience feelings of alienation, but we are not alone.
In fact, putting up with siblings, family issues and struggling to "find ourselves" are common denominators for us all.

Inventions topped inventions.

This year, we saw cable lines not only enhance television but surfing speed and e-commerce as well.

Electronic organizers rock.

From the palm of your hand you can check e-mail, invest in futures or buy a present for Mom.

Oh yeah, and get organized.

The newest digital cameras have greater picture quality as well as roomier disk space, while the next generation MP3s are smaller, faster, more portable, and provide better-than-ever sound quality.

Toyota was among the future-thinking car companies to introduce hybrid cars.

Half -electric and half gasoline-powered, these new wheels will eventually be as easy on the pocketbook as they are on the planet.

Playstation 2

and the latest Nintendo made the virtual world more entertaining.

Performers like Hoku and Jakob Dylan of the Wallflowers emerged from the shadows of their famous parents.

Blink-182 lets their California style influence their wardrobe and music, which led them to an MTV music award for "All the Small Things."

Globalization has had a profound effect on the style-music industry. Latin's back with a bang with the return of Carlos Santana and the rise of Enrique Inglesias along with Christina Aguilera's release of a Latin-style CD this year. And we saw Ricky Martin going global with a tour reaching as far as Austral-Asia.

On the local scene, many underground performers have been rocketed into the mainstream, as was Moby, the one-time New York DJ, with the immensely popular "Play," image is everything.

LIVE BABY LIVE!

Madonna came alive (what else is new) with her new "Music," reinvigorating her original dance-music roots.

Unbelievably, this mother of two has topped the charts for some three decades now.

Her concert, performed in a London pub, was one of the most-watched events on the Internet to date.

And with MTV, VH1, Napster, and others, the faces of today's performers are seen live everywhere.

For pop princesses like Britney Spears, Christina Aguilera and Aaliyah, as well as the ubiquitous boy bands, image is as big as (maybe bigger than) their music.

For performers like the Backstreet Boys, LFO, 98° and especially *NSYNC, style is the substance of pop.

Check out their live shows.

There was something for everybody on the big screen this year.
claymation genius brought the chickens of Tweedy's farm hilariously to life as they worked up a plan to fly the coop in "Chicken Run."
"Shanghai Noon," with Owen Wilson and Jackie Chan heading out West to rescue Princess Pei-Pei, played by Lucy Liu.
And Buzz Lightyear came to the rescue, and beyond, leading the troops on a mission to bring Woody back in "Toy Story 2."
"Pay It Forward" proved it's possible to change the world and it doesn't have to be a big thing. Kevin Spacey, Helen Hunt and wonderkid Haley Joel Osment inspired us all to do a favor or two or three and make this world a better place.
X-termination avoided, thanks to the X-Men.
Enlightened Professor Xavier provides a safe haven for the world's newest and most persecuted minority, a group of mutant, genetically-gifted human beings called the X-Men. Their struggle against hostile Government agencies and mutant supremacist Magneto made "X-Men" one of this summer's biggest smash hits.
